A Serene View
of Bradford on Avon

And on to the artwork...

I thought it would be a great idea to start the pictures part off with a dynamic, explosive image - but on reflection maybe I should have chosen something a little less black and white. This now looks like one of those adult colouring books popping up everywhere... albeit for adults after ten cups of espresso coffee.

'A Town Outline' - Bradford on Avon Townscape looking towards Trowbridge.

'Abbey Mill'

Close up detail with a view through the archway to the Abbey Mill car park.

Thankfully this wall has been left untouched despite many renovations of the mill, and provides a beautiful focal point.

Kids today...

*Will never know the panic of slotting
your ten pence in time as the 5ips
went off!*

A view of the phone box outside the Catholic Church, on the corner of Church Street and Market Street.
I bet it has heard a few
confessionals in its time!

I recently heard a small child in our gallery
asking his father "what is that" about a phone box I had taken as a photo.

We all felt suddenly old...
